10 Texts to Send Your Past Clients This Month

Copy, paste, send. Stay top of mind in 15 minutes a week.

Most past clients don't forget their agent because they were unhappy. They forget because nobody stayed in touch. These 10 texts fix that in about 15 minutes a week.

How to use them: send 2–3 a week. Swap the {placeholders}, change any word that doesn't sound like you, and only text people who gave you their number.

1. The drive-by

> Hi {First name}! It's {Your name}. I was just driving past {street} and thought of you. How's everything with the house?

2. The repair helper

> Hi {First name}! Most homeowners hit their first "uh oh" repair around now. If anything's come up, I have a great list of local pros. Just ask.

3. The home anniversary

> Happy home anniversary, {First name}! {X} years ago today you got the keys to {address}. Hope it's been treating you well.

4. The vendor list

> Hey {First name}, here are the 3 local pros my clients love: {vendor 1} for plumbing, {vendor 2} for HVAC, {vendor 3} for handyman jobs. Mention my name!

5. The value check

> Hi {First name}, homes near you have been moving lately. Want me to run a quick, no-strings value update on {address}? Takes me 10 minutes.

6. The season checklist

> Hi {First name}, quick {season} checklist for your house: {item 1}, {item 2}, {item 3}. Need a pro for any of these?

7. The remembered detail

> Hey {First name}, you mentioned you wanted to {renovate the kitchen / redo the deck}. Did that happen? I'd love to see pictures.

8. The honest restart

> Hey {First name}, I'll be honest: I've been bad at staying in touch. I'm fixing that this year. How's the house treating you?

9. The coffee invite

> Hi {First name}, it's been a while! I'd love to buy you a coffee and catch up. Any morning work next week?

10. The soft referral ask

> {First name}, quick question: who's the first person you'd tell if they asked you about buying a home? I'd love to be your go-to recommendation.
